

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Universidad de La Sabana, the Universidad del Norte and Pearson Colombia invite you to the 7th Biennial CLIL Symposium, to be held at the Universidad de La Sabana campus in Chía, Colombia on September 7–8, 2018.

This year's symposium focuses on the importance of the local context in the CLIL classroom, including issues in the teaching of intercultural competencies and contents, assessment for learning, and innovative practices and solutions for the CLIL classroom.

We are very fortunate to have experienced keynote speakers in the field of CLIL from Austria, Argentina, the UK and the U.S.; Christiane Dalton-Puffer, Dario Banegas, Ester de Jong, and Sara Lynn. We are, as ever, committed to bringing the latest CLIL knowledge and trends to the people who require it most: the teachers in schools, language institutes, and universities across Latin America.

We look forward to your participation in the 2018 7th Biennial CLIL Symposium. Please find on the subsequent pages of this document on how to submit a proposal, as well as information regarding prices, dates, and how to register. We are looking forward to seeing you there! If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us via the email address clilsymposiumcolombia@gmail.com.

Sincerely,

The 2018 CLIL Symposium Committee

CALL FOR PAPERS

Presentation categories

Proposals can be submitted for either 50 minute or 20-minute presentations:

- 50 minute presentations: 40 minutes presenting & 10 minutes for questions
 - Research Report: One or more presenters share their original research on a relevant topic.
 - Awareness Session: One or more presenters address the audience on relevant topic. Content must provide specific implementation ideas.
 - Workshop Session: One or more presenters conduct a hands-on workshop to allow participants to experience implementation. Workshops must allow time for participants to debrief and provide feedback.
- 20 minute presentations: 15 minutes presenting & 5 minutes for questions
 - Hot Topic Session: A brief oral summary of an innovative or successful teaching experience or research related to the CLIL classroom. These sessions must be succinct and to the point. Presenters are not expected to implement any activity with the audience.

PRESENTATION PROPOSAL ONLINE FORM

Prior to filling in this online form, ensure you have consulted the guidelines on the 7th Biennial CLIL Symposium Web site at www.clilsymposium.co. If you have questions regarding your proposal send inquiries to clilsymposiumcolombia@gmail.com.

How to submit your proposal

Submit your proposal CLIL 2018 Online Proposal Form

An e-mail acknowledging receipt will be sent to you within 2 days of submission. (Check your spam filter if the e-mail notification does not reach you).

Format of abstracts

All submissions must include an abstract of 150-250 words, excluding the title, names and affiliations. Do not include charts, tables, images, or bibliographical references in the abstract. Provide 3–5 keywords to help us place your abstract in the appropriate category, as well as not more than 100 words of Biographical Information. Before submitting your abstract, check the number of words and for typing errors using a word processor. Ensure that you do not use your name or refer to your home institution in the abstract itself, otherwise your proposal must be automatically rejected; instead, provide those details in the Biographical Information section of the submission form.

Conference Proceedings

Submit a paper for consideration in the special proceedings issue to be published in December 2018.

We hope that you will accept this invitation to participate in, and publish with, the 7th Biennial CLIL Symposium and the Latin American Journal of Content of Language Integrated Learning (LACLIL). If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the 7th Biennial CLIL Symposium Organizing Committee via the email address cliisymposiumcolombia@gmail.com.
